FRANCE'S DETERMINATION.

WILL HAVE THE FRUITS OF VICTORY.

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, September 30.
At the unveiling of a war monument at Bois D'Ailly M. Poincaré said Germany daily gave fresh proofs of her failure to understand. The Reich in proclaiming the necessity for ceasing passive resistance in the Ruhr sought to cover its retreat by the discharge of blank ammunition, but when the Reich contested the legality of the occupation of the Ruhr and accused the French and Belgians of oppressing and mistreating the inhabitants, it was an audacious version of roles, the Reich attributing to the French and Belgians the orders, France must therefore remain on guard. The Berlin Government could not do otherwise than end resistance in the Ruhr. It was no longer able to finance it, and knew it ran the risk of provoking the local populations from Reich, but the grudging declaration being inevitable the trace meant nothing. Execution was everything.

M. Poincaré continued "we are waiting for Germany to act. She has given up laying down conditions. This is good, but it now moves her to show as she is really prepared to facilitate for us in the occupied territory the development of the pledges which we consider indispensable for our security. The payment of reparations, if she has an arrière-pensée that she will receive from us concessions in exchange for mere words of signature, we shall not have advanced towards the detente. The detente therefore has not yet come to consider our task as ended. To-morrow's work is more difficult than what we have accomplished. I do not doubt that public opinion will continue to sustain by its clear-sightedness and sangfroid the French Government's resolve to obtain peace and justice. France as not yet secured the victory which the treaties guaranteed her, but she will secure it. We have sworn it, and shall keep our oath."

PARIAL SEPARATIST DEMONSTRATION.

CROWD FLIES INTO A PANIC.

Paris, September 30.
Twelve thousand Rhineland separatists demonstrated at Düsseldorf today in the presence of a crowd of 45,000. They went in procession through the square shouting "Favour separation!" Their speeches were about to begin, but they were interrupted by the firing of shot and the sound of the iron shutters of a shop. A crowd of panic and a number of persons were wounded, and many women and children were trampled underfoot. The square was emptied, and the railway station was besieged by masses of terrified people seeking to leave the town.

FRENCH TROOPS INTERVENE.

Paris, September 30.
A French dispatch from Düsseldorf suggests that imperialist German plainclothes policemen were responsible for breaking up the separatist demonstration, and asserts that they mingled with the crowd and started a disturbance, whereupon uniformed police fired on the demonstrators, many being wounded and picked up in French ambulances. The police barracks were full of wounded. It is reported that some of the demonstrators were killed. Detachments of French troops and gendarmes afterwards occupied the police barracks, and arrested the police there.

ELECTION TO LEAGUE COUNCIL.

CHINA OUT OF THE RECKONING.

Geneva, September 30.
In connection with the election of Uruguay, Brazil, Belgium, Sweden, Czechoslovakia and Spain as non-permanent members of the Council of the League of Nations, it is noteworthy that China, which obtained only ten votes, has been eliminated for the ensuing year in favour of Czechoslovakia, whose representative, Doctor Beneš, has been very active on the Reduction of Armaments Committee, while Persia and India, with fourteen and two votes, respectively, and the Netherlands, with four, have also been unsuccessful. The Chinese delegation protested against China's non-election, asserting that the principle of geographical distribution of non-permanent members had not been respected, and deploring the restriction of choice of non-permanent members of the Council depriving the Council of the important co-operation of at least one Asiatic State. The delegation fears that the non-observance of this principle may discourage the Far Eastern states, and hopes the possible consequent lack of interest by the League in China will not change into her temporary or even permanent abstention, which would be very regrettable in the interests of all concerned.

GREEK GOVERNMENT'S PROTEST.

DISAGREES WITH JANINA DECISION.

London, September 30.
An Athens message says it is semi-officially stated that a Greek note, replying to the decision of the Conference of Ambassadors, has been handed to the French Minister, on September 29, and very strongly protests against the decision. It disputes the allegation that Greek officials failed in their duty, and asserts there is a general conviction that the crime of Janina was committed by Albanian assassins, whom it is impossible to apprehend in view of the proximity of Albanian territory. It complains that the penalty imposed by the Conference to submit the decision to the International Justice at the Hague.

SERIES OF MISHAPS AT SEA.

TWO VESSELS SUNK AND EIGHT DAMAGED.

London, September 30.
There has been a remarkable series of collisions in the Channel, resulting in the sinking of the French steamer Amiral and the British schooner Florence. Half a dozen others were damaged, including the Wendell, a German ship, and the Wendell, a German ship. The Wendell was damaged by a collision with the homebound White Cedric, off the south coast of Ireland.

BAVARIA AND THE REICH.

Munich, September 30.
The Reich laws for protection of public are no longer operative in Bavaria.

LOCAL MOTOR TRIALS.

THE FUEL CONSUMPTION TEST.

SOME EXCELLENT PERFORMANCES.

Motorists assembled in large numbers at the junction of Tai-po and Lai Chi Kok roads on Sunday morning to take part in the fuel consumption test arranged under the joint auspices of the Hongkong Automobile Association and the Hongkong Telegraph. There were cars, combinations and solo cycles, and the scene was a busy one as the various machines had their tanks filled and sealed for the run to Fanling via Castle Peak and back. Free spirit to competitors was generously supplied by the following firms: Texaco (as well as oil) by the Texaco Company, "Shell" by the Asiatic Petroleum Company, and "Soco" by the Standard Oil Company. Mr. G. A. Walker was official sealer, whilst Lieut. Walsh was in charge of the recording. Other who lent valuable assistance were Messrs. C.D. Lambert, S.C. Saunders, J. Parsons, T.N. MacReynolds, F.P. Franklin, J. Smith, A. G. Hewitt and H. Buie. At the Fanling end Mr. F. Baker checked the competitors in.

The total run was 64½ miles, and the contest was judged by ton miles per gallon. Example, if a car and passenger weighed a ton and did 25 miles per gallon, that would be 25 ton miles to the gallon.

The results for the various classes were as follows:

MOTOR CARS.

Name.	Car.	Ton miles per gallon.	Miles per gallon.

DIRIGIBLE'S LONG FLIGHT.

NEW RECORD ESTABLISHED.

Marseilles, September 30.
The French dirigible Dixmude landed at Ciers at 6.36 this morning after a continuous flight of 118 hours and 41 minutes, beating the R34's world record of 108 hours and 12 minutes. The Dixmude left Cuers at 7.55 on the morning of September 25th, crossed the Mediterranean to Algeria and Tunis, then flew over the Sahara as far as Tuggurt, then again crossed the Mediterranean to Toulon, thence to Paris.

BANK DIRECTORS SENTENCED.

Copenhagen, September 30.
The Supreme Court gave judgment on the trial of the former directors of the Landmands Bank. The fine of eight hundred kroner on H. P. Prior, the managing director of the Nordiske Kavalog Traad Fabrik was altered to four months imprisonment. The other directors and members of the administrative board were sentenced to fines ranging from two thousand to four thousand kroner.

THE JAPANESE MORATORIUM.

Tokyo, September 30.
The moratorium in the districts affected by the earthquake has been discontinued.

HOTEL BAR SCENE.

EUROPEAN'S FILTHY LANGUAGE.

Thomas Jeffrey, 42, who described himself as being an importer and exports man, appeared on bail before Mr. C.D. Melbourne, at the Police Court this morning, charged by Mr. Job Wittchell, Manager of the King Edward Hotel, with disorderly conduct and using insulting language in the hotel.

The defendant, in reply to the charge, said: "not guilty absolutely."

Giving evidence, Mr. Wittchell said he was called to the bar at 8.30 on Saturday evening. Apparently there had been a struggle between two or three men, and a gentleman, called Mr. William Stewart, the language used being most disgusting. Mr. Wittchell ordered Jeffrey out of the bar, and he replied "I will not leave for you used language which was disgusting, beastly and filthy."

On being asked the nature of the remarks, Mr. Wittchell said that he would not like to use the language employed by the defendant. The latter also questioned his authority in ordering him out of the bar, and he cleared out only when he perceived that the police were being sent for. Some ten minutes later, however, he returned, but left a second time on a movement made to arrest him. A third time he returned and the police were then ready to take him into custody.

Mr. Wittchell again emphasized the undesirable language used by the defendant, describing it as being of a most disgusting nature.

At 10.30 a.m. he had been bailed out on a sum of £15 at the Central Police Station. Jeffrey returned to the hotel, and going through the public lounge, he caught sight of Mr. Wittchell. "I want to talk to you," he told Mr. Wittchell, and motioned towards the Manager's office. "And so I put him out," the witness briefly added. Jeffrey did not return again, and witness said that if he had done so he would carry out his intention of having him locked up.

Cross-examined by the defendant, witness said that he did not see the assault in the bar when he came in, but he saw the other man leaving the bar.

Defendant: Did you see me strike him?

Witness: I didn't see defendant strike him.

Defendant reiterated: Did you see me strike him, and did you hear me use filthy language?

Witness: I should be ashamed to repeat it.

Defendant asked for it to be repeated in Court.

The Magistrate interposing asked: Is it necessary?

Defendant: Well, Sir, I am not in the habit of using it. What I told Mr. Wittchell was that he should not run down a man's character.

Defendant's next question was whether Mr. Wittchell did not call him a "low-down scoundrel."

Witness: I did not.

Defendant asked if Mr. Wittchell's witness, the man named William Stewart, was not in Court.

It transpired that Mr. Stewart was not in Court, and Mr. Wittchell explained that he had promised to be there that morning.

Defendant remarked: "Well, if he promised he would be here, a man always keeps his promise."

In further questions, Jeffrey asked if it were not a fact that during the last three months there had been bad feeling between them. He insinuated that this fact came about when he saw Mr. Wittchell reading some private papers, business circulars which bore his signature. He complained that Mr. Wittchell had never liked him, and on his own part he never liked Mr. Wittchell because of his overbearing manner.

In explanation of this incident Mr. Wittchell said that a paper package was left behind in the

EARTHQUAKE SHOCK.

SHOCK FELL TO-DAY.

Shortly after noon to-day, a message came to us over the telephone stating that an earthquake shock had been felt in offices situated near the Hongkong Club. Our informant stated that the shock was quite perceptible, and that it caused a deal of excitement amongst Chinese in the locality.

Later we made enquiries at the Royal Observatory as to whether any shock had been recorded on the instruments there. Mr. T. F. Claxton, the Director, and investigations made, and he later informed us that the shock was slight tremor of the earth, felt at nine minutes past twelve to-day, which lasted for nearly a minute. "This may have been from a very small local earthquake," stated Mr. Claxton.

For which the boy brought to him, and the defendant came into the office and snatched it from his hand.

In a further attempt to cast aspersions on the witness's character defendant said that Mr. Wittchell, in the matter of serving drinks in the hotel, discriminated in favour of those who possessed money and allowed them to get intoxicated. Those discriminated against would be thrown out without ceremony.

His Worship held that the remarks were irrelevant to the issue.

Defendant then asked the witness if he was very bad at the influence of drink.

Defendant asked if he had come to the Police Station almost of his own accord and offered to go together with Mr. Wittchell to the Police Station suggesting that it was he who should have brought up a charge, and not the witness.

Witness: You had to go to the Police Station whether you liked it or not.

Defendant: I went back to the hotel after I was bailed out. Did I not act in a gentlemanly manner and asked the boy if he would be so kind as to tell you that I wanted to have a conversation with you? Mr. Wittchell caught hold of me and threw me down the steps exactly in the same way as he had done to many other men. I don't want to go to your hotel again, Mr. Wittchell. How many have you thrown out of the hotel?

Again the Magistrate ruled out the question as irrelevant.

Defendant: It shows his general character.

Another question: Have you got a loud voice and domineering manner, Mr. Wittchell?—Well, you have heard my voice.

Defendant suggested that there had been more cases brought into Court by Mr. Wittchell than from many other similar establishments.

"I like to show his general character," defendant added to this statement by way of explanation.

His Worship said that Mr. Wittchell had held a licence for many years for the King Edward Hotel and during that period there had not been anything against him.

An Indian constable who gave evidence was also cross-examined by the defendant at great length. In reply to a question as to who struck the first blow, witness said he saw Mr. Wittchell catch the defendant by the scruff of the neck and the defendant did to Mr. Wittchell likewise.

The Indian constable, on being questioned by Mr. Wittchell, admitted that he also saw defendant moved forward to strike Mr. Wittchell at the Police Station and that the latter held out his hand and pushed him off.

His Worship registered a conviction and imposed a fine of $5.

Defendant: Can I bring a charge against Mr. Wittchell for assault?

His Worship: Certainly, you can.

RECONDITIONED CARS.

Many people have the habit of getting a new car every year. No matter how good the old car may be. It is a good habit. Good for us because it helps the sale of new cars and puts some extra good used cars at our disposal. And that is what makes it good for you.

FOOTBALL COMPETITION.

RESULT TO-MORROW.

We regret that owing to the extremely large number of coupons sent in, we are unable to give the result of our Football Competition in this issue as we had hoped to do. The result will appear in to-morrow's Telegraph. A new competition commences to-day, the coupon for which will be found on Page 9 of this issue.

GODOWN OR TENEMENT?

A PRACTICAL SOLUTION.

It did not take long to settle the point at issue in a possession case which came before Mr. Justice Gompertz in the Summary Court, this morning. The owner of No. 1 Tiki-Ling Lane claimed possession of the ground floor of the house, occupied by a greengrocer.

Mr. McCallum, for plaintiff, held that the premises were a godown, and were used by the tenant for storing green goods. They were not a domestic tenement as nobody lived there.

Mr. F.G. Vaux, for defendant, submitted that several persons did live on the premises.

His Honour: Is anyone living there at the moment?

Mr. McCallum: Yes, my lord.

His Honour: Is it a domestic tenement, and the defendant is entitled to possession of the premises?

After viewing the floor, his Honour was satisfied that it was a domestic tenement, and he gave judgment for the defendant, with costs.

THE LEAGUE ASSEMBLY.

Geneva, Sept. 30.

The League Assembly has elected the following as non-permanent members of Council for the ensuing year—Uruguay, Brazil, Belgium, Sweden, Czechoslovakia and Spain. The Assembly adopted a report noting with great satisfaction the reduction of armaments expenditure by most of the League States in the past three years and hoping it would become more marked and more general. The Session closed with a speech by the President reviewing the important work accomplished.

Chao Hsin-chu denied the rumour that China intended to establish an opium monopoly. China had never legalised a traffic, which it was doing its utmost to suppress, according to the Hague Convention. He was gratified that the United States had associated themselves with the work of the Advisory Committee, and he was hopeful that the opium problem would be successfully solved.

Speaking on the subject of intellectual co-operation, Chao Hsin-chu agreed with the proposal to exchange professors and students. China had sent over two thousand young people to America for scientific studies, and a still larger number was studying in Europe. He hoped that Europeans would likewise send more students to the East. He appealed to Westerners in the Far East, so engaged with money-making, not to overlook what was more precious—the Oriental type of intellectualism.

Geneva, Sept. 30.

The Council of the League has decided to call a conference of States where opium smoking continues. A conference to meet at Geneva, mid-July 1924. A second "opium" conference will follow immediately afterwards.

"WELL WORTH WHILE"

Washington, Sept. 28.

President Coolidge received Sir Rodger Jones (head of Reuters) at the White House and conversed on international affairs, in the course of which the President spoke deliberately about the way in which Britain were dealing with their debt to the United States. He believed they would find that what they were doing was well worth the efforts required to conclude repayment of the great loan. He equally believed that the United States would find it was well worth while to make the sacrifice they had in connection with the refunding of the loan. He added that Britain's action in settling her debt had greatly impressed the United States, and it could not but result in good. President Coolidge evinced the friendliest feeling towards British people and displayed great interest and close acquaintance with the present situation.

GERMANY PEACE

Berlin, Sept. 29.

There is perfect tranquillity throughout the country. The Minister of Communications has issued a manifesto ordering the Postal, Telegraph and Railway workers in the Ruhr to return to their posts. The Minister of Reconstruction has also cancelled the regulation relating to discontinuance of station deliveries in kind to France and Belgium.

THE NEW TURKEY.

London, Sept. 29.

The report transmitted by Reuters' Vienna correspondent about a republic in Turkey evidently relates to discussions proceeding at Ankara regarding the form of the new State. The Government party recently decided to recommend a republican form, with Mustapha Kemal a strong favourite for the Presidency.

THE GREEK INDEMNITY.

Rome, Sept. 29.

It is announced that Premier Mussolini, with a view to demonstrating that the fifty million lire, which has been obtained from Greece, was primarily as a political and moral punishment and not for material gain, decided immediately to grant ten million of it for the relief of Greek and Armenian refugees housed in Corfu and elsewhere in Greece.

Corfu, Sept. 30.

A WEEK IN THE AIR.

Marseilles, Sept. 30.

A remarkable feat has been achieved by the French airship Dixmude which has been continuously flying since Tuesday morning and claims to have beaten the world's record for a non-stop flight, covering seven thousand kilometres in one hundred and eight hours. The Dixmude expects to remain in the air for another twenty-four hours.

New York, September 28.—In the semi-final of the American Professional Golf Championship, Hagen defeated McLean by 12 and 11 and Sarazen beat Cruikshank by 7 and 5.

New York, September 29.—Sarazen has won the American Professional Golf Championship, defeating Walker Hagen in the final at the thirty-eighth hole.

In the semi-final Hagen defeated McLean by 12 and 11 and Sarazen beat Cruikshank by 7 and 5.

The golf final was followed by thousands and bristled with thrills from beginning to end. During the morning round the lead was got by Hagen, but Sarazen finally evened up the match, securing a "birdie three" at the eighteenth. In the afternoon Sarazen gained an early lead of three, but Hagen, earned. Finally at the thirty-eighth hole both tried to carry over the trees and cut off the curve. Sarazen was short in the rough grass and Hagen in a sand pocket on the far side of the green. Sarazen made a wonderful recovery to within two feet of the hole, while Hagen took two to get out of the trap. Sarazen then held his putt for a "birdie three."

The tea test

Some people judge you by your clothes; some by the size of your house, or the number of your servants.

But there is another standard—the tea test. Does your store cupboard reveal the famous Brooke Bond vacuum-packed tin? Do you know good tea, or are you content to drink—and give your friends—the tasteless stuff that one too often gets?

Brooke Bond tea in the vacuum tin is always crisp, fresh and pure. It keeps in perfect condition in any climate.

Ask for

Brooke Bond Tea in the vacuum-packed tin.

It costs no more than ordinary tea.

RED LABEL IS THE BEST QUALITY.

The inner lid of the tin may be broken. If broken the contents may be spoiled.

AQUATIC FESTIVAL.

ANOTHER WIN FOR MAY.

There was an interesting aquatic programme at the V.R.C. on Saturday afternoon, the final day of the festival. In the 440 yards A.F. May gained another championship, beating B. Ramsay by eight seconds. Miss G. Ramsay won the 100 yards ladies' championship in 1 min. 22.35 secs, the second place going to Miss M. Blundson. Miss Ramsay also gained first place in the ladies' high dive, with 97 points, while the men's high dive was won by D. Laing. One of the most exciting events was the team race between the V.R.C. and the Club de Rekreio, which resulted in a win for the latter.

After the sports there was a gathering in the dancing hall, where Lady Rees-Davies presented the prizes.

Before asking Lady Rees-Davies to give away the prizes, Mr. W. Laing, the Chairman, voiced the Club's thanks to the prize donors who this year included a number of Chinese friends, to the officials who had ably conducted the meeting and also to the visitors. This year the barbour races would be held on October 16th, 17th, and 18th, the first day for ladies and the other days for European and Chinese.

The presentation of trophies then took place amidst loud applause.

Sir William Rees-Davies expressed his thanks to the Club on behalf of his wife for asking her to perform the pleasing ceremony. Sir William said that all would agree with him that this year's meeting was a great success and reflected credit on the officials, who, it must have been obvious, had worked very hard. Hongkong had a sporting community. He had been to many places, but he did not know of any one of them that was more sporting than Hongkong. There were few things which required more courage and got them swimmers. To perform against another was a hard task and gave the boys a good opportunity not only to acquire skill but also to gain in confidence.

In conclusion Sir William Rees-Davies wished the V.R.C. continued prosperity and hoped that it would not be long before they had Sir Claude Severn in their midst again. Cheers for Sir William and Lady Rees-Davies terminated the proceedings.

The Club held a dance on Saturday night in celebration of the carnival, giving an opportunity to members and their friends of indulging in the "light fantastic" for a few hours.

Results.

The following were the results of Saturday's programme:

100 yards championship—Lips: 1. A. T. May, time 5.20 secs.; 2. B. Ramsay, 5.57 secs.

100 yards championship of the Colony boys: 1. J. Pearce, time 7.25 secs.; 2. W. G. Crisp, 7.51 secs.

Boys' two lengths: 1. Cassimbury, 2. Mitchell.

100 yards ladies' championship: 1. Miss G. Ramsay, time 1.22.25 secs.; 2. Miss M. Blundson, 1.25.15 secs.

Two lengths handicap members: 1. A. Mitchell, time 30.25 secs.; 2. S. H. Garner, 31.10 secs.

Girls' two lengths handicap: 1. Miss P. Hunt, time 4.25 secs.; 2. Miss M. George, 4.51 secs.

High dive open to the Colony: 1. D. Laing, 100 points; 2. G. A. Jack, 85 points.

Ladies' high dive: 1. Miss G. Ramsay, 97 points; 2. Miss R. Mitchell, 91 points.

Ladies' two lengths handicap: 1. Miss C. Smith, time 41.25 secs.; 2. Miss G. Ramsay, 42.35 secs.

Two lengths championship (boys under 12 years of age): 1. Groundwater, time 44 secs.; 2. Chue, 45 secs.

Consolation race, two lengths: 1. Razoret, 2. Mitchell.

Girls' four lengths handicap: 1. Miss P. Hunt, time 1.41.25 secs.; 2. Miss Pathejohns, 1.50 secs.

Mixed nomination race: 1. Gunner McDade and Miss Blundson.

THE CHINESE SEE-SAW.

NORTHERN GENERAL IN FLIGHT.

Ichang, Sept. 29.—It is reported that after further fighting at Chungking the northern general, Chao Yung-bwa, fled to Wansien by steamer, his troops retreating overland. Liu Hsiang is again master of Chungking. Yang Sen is retreating from Luchow.

The Kweichow troops at Fowchow have departed inland and it is thought they carried away the Yiyang Maru Japanese and Chinese captives. The Japanese Consul, with the Hankow manager of the N. K. K., has proceeded upriver to negotiate. There is no news hitherto.—Reuter.

PROMENADES WANTED.

A few days ago, we were looking at a fine coloured sketch of the Peninsula Hotel now in course of construction at Kowloon. It was a splendid piece of work and gave an excellent impression of what this magnificent building will look like when completed. There was only one thing wrong with it—the foreground of the picture, which gave the impression that the hotel stood on the seafloor, with a fine broad promenade between the building and our beautiful harbour. That, we presume, was what might be termed artistic licence. But the picture set us thinking. The thought came to us that the sketch reflected what ought to be. Instead, however, of a broad roadway between the hotel site and the harbour, we have the railway line running down almost to the water's edge.

Whose idea it was ever to bring the railway track right down to this point, skirting the whole European residential district, we do not know. It is now generally conceded that it was a mistake. It was, we know, intended to carry the line across the road close to the ferry wharf and on to the wharves, but a more absurd route could scarcely have been chosen. The result has been to deprive Kowloon of a long stretch of foreshore where, in other days, happy times were spent by bathers, and also to make the provision of a promenade impossible so long as the railway follows its present track. The idea occurs to us that in connection with the harbour development scheme it may be possible to divert the line on to the new piers and wharves which are to be erected, but the chief difficulty about having the railway terminus there would be that it would mean the abandonment of the present station, which was a somewhat costly building. There can be no question, however, that if the railway ground from Holt's wharf down to the ferry were given up and a fine broad road constructed on it, an immense improvement would be effected.

When we come to think of it, Hongkong with its magnificent harbour, has practically no seafront promenade at all. The only strip which can be so described is that between the ferry wharf and the Naval Yard on this side of the harbour. Even this could be greatly improved by closing the greater part of it as a road, turning it, planting a few trees, providing a number of seats and running a small path-way through it for pedestrians. A bandstand could even be erected, and in the summer open-air performances given. That is just a little idea of what might be done if we were as enterprising as we should be. One thing, however, is certain, and that is the anomaly of Hongkong being practically without any promenade whatever. Even Shanghai, though the waters be those of the muddy Whangpoo, can beat us in this respect.

Our Trees.

A correspondent to the local Press a few days ago had something to say, evidently "with sarcasm," about the trees in Hongkong, and we think his remarks are for the most part well merited. It is difficult for the average citizen to know whether the men he sees lopping branches or felling trees on the island are foresters carrying out lawful instructions or timber stealers at their fell work. Only the other day the writer observed, in a wooded part of Hongkong, at least half a dozen trees—some of them fine specimens of the Chinese pine—which had been ring-barked; and it seemed impossible to believe that the department connected with the arboreal amenities of the Colony could be responsible for such destruction. After the damage caused by the big typhoon there was more damage done by unscrupulous firewood-cutters, who seized the opportunity of felling a few more trees in each area where they operated. For some days they were permitted to work their will, until it became difficult to impress upon the more ignorant Chinese villagers that such practices were still illegal. Perhaps it is an aftermath of that period which is responsible for the present evil, the timber thieves being emboldened by their previous apparent immunity of about a week or so. In any case it is just as well that the matter have special attention drawn to it.

Far East Defences.

Mr. Geoffrey Drage, whose remarks on the proposed naval base at Singapore have already given him much publicity, now draws further attention to the Far East in what must be a very outspoken article in the Nineteenth Century, judging from the summary wired by Reuter on Saturday. He draws attention to two popular beliefs which have been openly expressed for several years past—namely, the American opinion that Britain would aid in defence of the Philippines as matter of ordinary precautionary policy, and the Australian and Canadian belief that their territories can count on protection from the United States of America against Asiatic (i.e. Japanese) aggression. Now that these matters have been publicly discussed, it were as well to face them boldly, instead of continuing the foolish fashion of taboo. It is suggested that Imperial defence problems are likely to be shelved owing to those prevalent beliefs in an English-speaking unwritten pact, and that it is high time concrete proposals were put forward and decided upon. We agree with this view. Nothing is to be gained by leaving such big questions to chance; and at the very least a discussion by the forthcoming Imperial Conference will clear the atmosphere of much doubt and misunderstanding.

HEART-BREAKING.

A policeman at Tottenham Police Court said he found a man sitting in the road weeping bitterly. He asked, "Why are you crying?" The man pointed to his coat pocket and shook his head sadly. Investigation proved that he had two bottles of beer in his pocket and was so drunk that he could not get the corks out.

YOU ARE NOT VERY GOOD IF YOU ARE NOT BETTER THAN YOUR BEST FRIENDS IMAGINE YOU TO BE.—Lawyer.

Mr. D. M. Biggar left to-day by the President McKinley.

Dr. Wu Lien-teh, the plague expert, arrived in the Colony by the P. and O. liner Soudan.

The Catholic Men's Club are holding a whist-drive to-night, commencing at 8.30 p.m.—Advt.

The health return for the past two days shows three cases of cerebro-spinal fever and one of small-pox. All were Chinese.

Lieut. H. P. K. Oram has been directed to join the Hawkins, flagship of the China Station, leaving for Hongkong on Sept. 15, says a mail paper.

Dr. Wu Lien-teh is to read a paper on "Modern Health Problems" at the University this evening under the auspices of the University Medical Society. There will be illustrations by cinematograph films.

The net receipt of the Portuguese entertainment in the Kowloon Theatre on the 15th ult., amounting to $194, has been paid to the Portuguese Relief Committee of the Japanese Earthquake Relief Fund.

We desire publicly to announce that we cannot accept gruesome pictures of scenes in connection with the Japanese earthquake. Several photos showing heaps of bodies of those killed have been offered to us for reproduction, but we have declined to accept them. All the pictures we have printed so far, have been confined to material damage, and we have no intention of departing from this policy.

A newspaper delivery coolie was to-day charged on remand by the proprietor of the Sunday Observer with the embezzlement of 16 copies of the issue. His plea was that he delivered the papers to a cookhouse, and that there were only fourteen papers given into his charge for delivery. Evidence was given by Major Eric Wright of the non-delivery of a copy of the issue of the day in question to his house at No. 9, Queen's Gardens. A fine of $5 was imposed.

The Chinese Young Women's Christian Association have this week issued their prospectus giving the programme for the autumn work. Educational classes begin this week and include English, Chinese, Mandarin, home nursing, foreign and Chinese cooking, and piano. These classes are planned not to duplicate but to supplement the work of the schools. To give help to the mothers, baby clinics in charge of Dr. S. To Wong are held on Thursday mornings and talks are to be given to the mothers on alternate Thursdays. There are also three general health talks to be given this autumn.

JAPAN PICTURES.

On Saturday, there was again a great demand for our Pictorial Supplement giving illustrations of the Japanese earthquake damage.

We have printed further copies, and these can be obtained at the Telegraph offices at ten cents each.

ARMED ROBBERS.

TWO MORE CASES.

The offices of the Kung Yick Poultry Depot, at No. 167 Des Voeux Road West, were last night entered by seven men all armed with revolvers, who opened two safes and escaped with a sum of $1,500 and a watch and chain valued at $30. In the subsequent hue-and-cry one suspect was arrested and will be charged in due course before the Magistrate.

A little later, another gang entered a Chinese dwelling-house situated on the hillside, being the Sanitary Inspector's quarters at Kennedy Town. Pretending they were police officers in a search for arms, four men implicated in the affair stole money, jewellery and clothing of the total value of $149. This gang was similarly armed with revolvers.

LOCAL FOOTBALL.

SATURDAY'S RESULTS.

[By "QUIZ"]

The season opened on Saturday, the results being as follows:—

LEAGUE DIV. I.
Club ... 1 H.K. Police ... 1
Tamar ... 5 Diomedes ... 1
King's ... 3 Kowloon ... 0

LEAGUE DIV. II.
R. G. A. ... 4 Sacred Heart 1
St. Joseph's ... 3 Diomedes ... 1
S. China "B" ... 2 S. China "A" 1

The game between Tamar Reserves v. Kowloon Reserves and Club Reserves v. King's Reserves were not played.

Great interest was shown in the opening matches which augers well for a good season. The stands on the big grounds were not completed on Saturday last, yet large numbers turned out to see the form of new players.

NOTES ON THE GAMES.

The Tamar had a runaway win over the Diomedes, but the score is no indication of the game, for the Diomedes had almost as much of the play as the Tamar, but the difference in the score can almost be written down as the difference in the play of the respective goalkeepers. Routley was outstanding in goal for the depot ship, whereas Blackah for the Diomedes gave a poor show.

Kowloon were disappointing as a team, especially the middle line, while the forwards will need a lot of practice if they wish to equal last season's performance.

The Club, who were almost certain of taking the points in their opening match, had a setback and only managed to get the equalising goal in the last three minutes of the game.

The St. Joseph's team are a lot of youngsters and their win over the Diomedes on Saturday should put them in good vein for further successes.

The South China teams opened in good form and should do well this season.

The Sacred Heart went off with a dash in the opening match, but they found the R.G.A. much too heavy for them and were soon outplayed.

CLUB v. POLICE.

On the Club ground, the home team turned out as advertised. Gerrard taking his place at back. The Police had a bustling team out and quite put the Club off their game. McWalters was on top of his form, and Bell, the speedy winger, found him a great stumbling block. J. Clark, as centre half, broke up the home team's combination, while Post was a dangerous forward, knowing when and how to shoot. For a time the play was in the Police half, but a run down the wing by Cargill ended in a corner which was negated. The Club forced a couple of corners, but the ball was put behind from the flag kick. It was near half-time when the Police opened the score through Bishop failing to clear from a high centre by Post, and McReynolds receiving gave to Post who sent the ball into the net. After the change of ends, the play went in favour of the Club, but the forward play was very scrappy and several chances were lost through individual play. Bell had several chances, but tried to shoot instead of centreing and the ball was sent wide of the goal. McBride looked like a certain goalscorer, but failed to shoot and Stewart, who was playing a good game in goal for the Police, picked the ball up from almost the goal line. In the falling light Begg was sent down the wing, and, sending over a dropping shot, the goalkeeper misjudged and let the ball pass over his head into the net.

The game ended in a draw of one goal all.

KING'S v. KOWLOON.
Playing at home, the Kowloon team went down badly to the King's. The game opened fairly even, but the summer training of the soldiers soon put them in the ascendant and the home defence was hard pressed. Just before the interval, Jones received, near the halfway line, and, running through, gave Hill a hard shot to stop. This the goalie successfully did, but Jones, following up, trapped the ball and before Hill could recover, the King's centre had put the ball into the net. Half-time: King's, 1, Kowloon, 0.

Resuming, the home team visited Blacoe, who had not been tested in the first half, owing to the King's sound defence. The shot was easily cleared. Play was transferred and Hill was given a warm time in goal. Jones scored the second goal with a very slow shot and as the ball was entering the net it was kicked out, but the referee decided that the ball had crossed the line and the King's were two up.

The hopes of the Kowloon supporters were raised when Cooke had a chance to score, but the ball striking the upright and rebounding to play brought relief to the King's supporters. During a raid by the soldiers, Morrison handled well inside the penalty area, and Newton beat Hill. The game ended with the King's winning by three goals to nil.

TAMAR v. DIOMEDES.

This match was played at Sookunpoo owing to the Valley grounds not being fit. Play opened very even, but it was soon evident that the combination of the Tamar would carry the day. After 18 minutes play Hudson opened the score with a shot 30 yards out, which the goalkeeper should have cleared. Shortly afterwards, the Tamar forwards got going, and Morrell, in attempting to clear, put the ball into his own goal. Half-time: Tamar, 2 Diomedes, 0.

Restarting, Hill ended up a sprint down the wing by sending the ball over, where Wilkins scored the Tamar's third goal. Hudson scored the fourth from a penalty for hands against Morrell, and Wilkins put on No. 5. Before the close, Bolwell scored for the Diomedes.

JUNIOR GAMES.

In the Junior games, the Diomedes opened the score against St. Joseph's, but Tai Yin-su equalised for St. Joseph's. After the change of ends, the College added two more goals and won by three to one.

The R. G. A. opened the score through Hill and at half-time led by a goal to nil. After the change of ends, Allen scored three for the R.G.A., and Chan Kum-yiu, one for the Sacred Heart. The R. G. A. won by four goals to 1.

The "B" team won against the "A" by the odd goal in the South China match. Au Kit-sang opened the score and Pang Wah-hing increased their lead. Chan Chien-sing scored from a penalty for the "A".

crossed the line and the King's were two up.

The hopes of the Kowloon supporters were raised when Cooke had a chance to score, but the ball striking the upright and rebounding to play brought relief to the King's supporters. During a raid by the soldiers, Morrison handled well inside the penalty area, and Newton beat Hill. The game ended with the King's winning by three goals to nil.

TAMAR v. DIOMEDES.

This match was played at Sookunpoo owing to the Valley grounds not being fit. Play opened very even, but it was soon evident that the combination of the Tamar would carry the day. After 18 minutes play Hudson opened the score with a shot 30 yards out, which the goalkeeper should have cleared. Shortly afterwards, the Tamar forwards got going, and Morrell, in attempting to clear, put the ball into his own goal. Half-time: Tamar, 2 Diomedes, 0.

Restarting, Hill ended up a sprint down the wing by sending the ball over, where Wilkins scored the Tamar's third goal. Hudson scored the fourth from a penalty for hands against Morrell, and Wilkins put on No. 5. Before the close, Bolwell scored for the Diomedes.

JUNIOR GAMES.

In the Junior games, the Diomedes opened the score against St. Joseph's, but Tai Yin-su equalised for St. Joseph's. After the change of ends, the College added two more goals and won by three to one.

The R. G. A. opened the score through Hill and at half-time led by a goal to nil. After the change of ends, Allen scored three for the R.G.A., and Chan Kum-yiu, one for the Sacred Heart. The R. G. A. won by four goals to 1.

The "B" team won against the "A" by the odd goal in the South China match. Au Kit-sang opened the score and Pang Wah-hing increased their lead. Chan Chien-sing scored from a penalty for the "A".

LAWN BOWLS.

SOME TOPICAL COMMENT.

(By "TOUCHER".)

The Singles Championship of the Colony has now reached the semi-finals stage, the players left being Russell (K.B.G.C.) v. Wallace (Taikoo) and Greener v. Omar, both of Craigangwar. Both the latter are comparatively junior players and have reached the present stage of the contest by consistently good bowling. Greener reached his present position after a strenuous game of 32 heads against Hall, the Interport player, whom he defeated by one point, while Omar qualified by defeating the veteran Ferguson of Taikoo 21-16. Of the two players—Greener and Omar—I rather fancy Greener for the final. He is a cool, careful player, and delivers his woods with fine judgment.

The match between Russell and Wallace should be a closely contested one. The former, at the start of the season, was somewhat off his game, but has lately showed excellent form. Wallace—Hongkong's Interport Skip, 1922-1923, and last year's Singles Champion—will certainly make a strong bid for premier honours. He is, if anything, a better singles player than he is a skip, but is inclined to be nervous on big occasions. This weakness showed itself in the recent Interport, when he gave a rather poor display of bowling. Both contestants have already been Singles Champions of the Colony, and I well remember Russell's sensational victory over Bateman of Taikoo when the latter was leading 19-6.

Talking about Championships, I see by the Home papers that W.F. Wade (Hinckley) has won the English Championship by defeating Sainsbury (Bucks)—no scores given. Wade has had a remarkably successful season and must be bowler of merit. He has this year, in addition to the honour referred to, won the Leicestershire Championship, the Midland Counties' Championship, skipped the Hinckley rink in the E.B.A. Championship, reached the semi-final stages of the Midland Counties Pairs and Single Rink Championships, and, with a club mate, recently won the Open Pairs Tournament at Abbey Park. Some bowler!

The first week's tour of the Scottish B.A. bowlers in the South of England has been a successful one. In their first match at Hendon the Scots drew with the London Scottish B.A. at 119 all, but against Bounds Green club, one of the best in the London district, they won by 114 to 107. At Southend they played the Civil Service B.A. and scored their greatest victory by 132 to 93. In the Scottish team is W.H. Scoullar, Singles Champion of Scotland 1923, who has delighted the Southerners with his fine bowling. The programme of the Scottish team was to finish on August 24th in a Test Match at Ilford against the L.S.B.A.

The local League Championship, Inter-club contest, is now nearing the final stage. Taikoo "B" team, with two matches to play, are the favourites for premier position, but bowling has many surprises, and the final result is still in the lap of the gods. Should Taikoo "B" lose their two remaining matches—a scarcely probable happening—Taikoo "A" may become the Champions. K.C.C. sprang another surprise on Saturday by defeating the redoubtable K.D.R.C. by two points. I am afraid that the visitors succumbed to the trickiness of the K.C.C. green, although Dame Rumour has it that one at least of the Dock players found more ruts and curves than actually exist. But Dame Rumour was a lying jade. The Bowling Green's victory over Taikoo "B" gave the K.D.R.C. a chance to become League Champions, but they failed to rise to the occasion. Nevertheless, they have done exceedingly well in their natal year as a bowling club, and Taikoo must look to their future laurels.

INTERPORT POLO.

VISITORS WIN BY NARROW MARGIN.

After a fine match, in brilliant weather and before a big crowd of spectators, the visiting Shanghai polo players on Saturday won the Interport contest, and the Kewwick Cup, defeating Hongkong by four goals to three.

To sum up, the visitors deserved to win, as they played with as fine combination as we have ever seen in a polo team in the East. Hongkong's side was not less brilliant individually, but seemed strangely out of concert. To some extent, the local team had "bad joss", in missing repeated opportunities of scoring, but it is a difficult matter to judge just when joss and faulty calculation become distinct. There was some bad missing on Saturday—and most of it was observed on the local side. In the last chukka Hongkong played up wonderfully, and there seemed every prospect of their at least equalising, but it was again a tale of lost opportunities.

Capt. Neville was bumped into and thrown and badly shaken in the latter part of the game, but was fortunately able to resume after a few minutes.

Major General Sir John Fowler K.C.M.G., C.B., D.S.O., was in charge of the game, and the teams were:

Hongkong: Bartholomew (1), Dent (2), Boyd (3), Neville (4). Shanghai: Greig (1), Hickling (2), Newbigging (3), McMichael (4).

The first chukka was characterised by little play of any quality though Shanghai seemed to be able to outdrive the local men whenever they chose. No score was registered.

THE FIRST GOAL.

In the second chukka Shanghai still had the better of the game, and eventually Newbigging put them one up. Hongkong threw away an opportunity a little later, and the same bad luck attended a Shanghai effort near the close.

The visitors were not quite so prominent in the third chukka, but a miscalculation by Neville gave them an opportunity of scoring from a penalty. McMichael putting them two up. A similar chance came Hongkong's way soon afterwards, without result, but Boyd, with a flash of his old form, scored after a fine effort.

The fourth chukka opened more vigorously, the local team showing more of the combination required, but two near chances of scoring (the ball going just the wrong side of the post) left the issue still in the balance. Neville, as already mentioned, met with a nasty shake-up, being unseated, and appeared to be seriously hurt. To everyone's relief however, he was able to resume, and pluckily entered immediately into the effort to obtain the equaliser. This period saw no score added.

In the fifth chukka there was some hard riding from one end of the field to the other and some fine work was witnessed on either hand, but the visitors were the ones to score. McMichael putting in an excellently-obtained goal. The local effort now improved considerably, and Bartholomew with a splendid bit of riding down the field got Hongkong a second point.

EXCITING EXCHANGES.

In the last chukka the best play of all was seen, and Hongkong equalised with a fine shot from Boyd, which was diverted between the posts of McMichael's pony. This equaliser made the match still more exciting, and the players exerted themselves to the utmost.

The deciding goal, as it proved, came to Shanghai through Greig, and Hongkong supporters' hopes fell as the local side missed one opportunity after another in the last few minutes.

Three cheers and a tiger were called for by the Shanghai captain as the teams rode off the field, and responded to by the Hongkong captain calling for cheers for the victors.

The Cup was presented to the Shanghai captain by H. E. the Governor, Sir R.E. Stubbs, who said Hongkong would have liked to have retained the trophy, but he had pleasure in giving it over to such good hands, and congratulated the visiting team on its victory. In reply Mr. McMichael said he wished on behalf of his team to express their appreciation for the hospitality shown them in Hongkong, at Government House and the Polo Club. He congratulated the local team on its fine game, and said he hoped that, in the not distant future, Shanghai would be able to return the

LOCAL ARMED DESPERADOES.

DETECTIVES SHOOTING CONTEST.

Our highway robbers having resumed their activity, and reports being to hand of further hold-ups, the local police carried out a systematic search over the week-end, with gratifying results.

Men from the detective branch, augmented as far as possible, were posted at various points in the middle levels yesterday, and succeeded in arresting several armed men who are believed to be connected with recent daylight robberies in Kennedy Road and Bowen Road. About three o'clock in the afternoon detectives were about to search a suspicious-looking Chinese at Glenealy, when he suddenly dashed away up the pathway towards Robinson Road. On observing the detectives following him, the man drew a revolver and fired at his pursuers, fortunately without result. The police returned his fire, but he was unhurt and got down to the Public Gardens, where he hid himself. A search by a large party of police resulted in his being discovered among some bushes nearly an hour afterwards, but his weapon could not be found.

The search in other places also proved fruitful. An Indian constable stopped a man opposite the Post Office later in the afternoon and found a loaded revolver and some ammunition in his possession. The man was promptly taken in charge. In Happy Valley, a Chinese schoolboy, who had been held up and robbed in Bowen Road last Friday, was out with the searchers, and recognised a man whom he thought was one of the footpads he had encountered. The man was arrested, and gave the police information which led later to four other arrests in a house at Wanchai.

WATCHMAN SUES BANK.

A QUESTION OF WAGES.

A watchman, named Mohamed Akbar, sued Chee Koo, manager of the China Industries Development Banking Corporation, Ltd., in the Summary Court, before Mr. Justice Gompertz, this morning, for $37.50, one and a half months' wages.

Mr. C. A. S. Russ (for plaintiff) explained that his client was originally engaged by the bank, of which defendant was manager, and, Mr. Russ thought, director and also a large shareholder. The China Industries Development Banking Corporation Limited, despite its grandiloquent title, became insolvent, said Mr. Russ, with the consequence that the whole of the staff, with the exception of two office boys, were dismissed. They had never gone into liquidation, Mr. Russ explained, nobody had the energy to wind them up. Defendant remained with the bank to get in the assets, and, requiring the services of a watchman, he approached plaintiff and asked him to continue. Plaintiff agreed to remain and be in the service of defendant direct, from Feb. 15th. On March 15th, plaintiff asked for his wages. Defendant told him that he would pay him at the end of the month, but at the end of March plaintiff received only a month's payment. Plaintiff's services terminated on Sept. 1st, and he claimed that one and a half months' wages were due to him.

Mr. C. H. Lyson (for defendant) said that plaintiff was paid from the first to the first of each month and not from the fifteenth to the fifteenth. There was $25 due from the bank to plaintiff, which had been tendered, but plaintiff had refused to accept it.

Judgment was given for plaintiff.

Your Breakfast Coffee will be a real joy—if you prepare half-and-half with hot, rich Glaxo—the milk with the real English flavour.

Glaxo is the rich milk of British-bred dairy cows from which the water has been removed by the Glaxo Process. This process presents the nourishing solids of the milk in the form of a dry powder, which, packed in a parchment bag inside an airtight sealed tin, comes to you across the seas with all its freshness and flavour unimpaired.

All you have to do is to add boiling water only (a half-pint to three dessertspoons of Glaxo). Mix as much as you require when you require it—the rest will keep for a considerable period, if the tin be kept tightly closed and in a cool place.

INDIAN RECREATION CLUB.

ANNUAL REPORT.

The report of the I. R. C. Committee for the season 1922-1923, to be presented at the annual meeting on Sunday, states:

Finance.—The Income and Expenditure Account, after writing off Bad Debts and Depreciation on furniture and gear, shows a surplus of $137.86.

Membership.—The number on the roll is 166, an increase of 15 over last year's figure. The Committee regret to record the death of Messrs. S. A. Hassan and E. Rumjahn.

Ground.—The ground is in a good condition. A bowling green and two tennis courts have been laid out and a part of the cricket pitch has been extended.

Club House.—The Club House was totally destroyed by the last typhoon and preparations are being made to erect a new shed. We tender our thanks to Mr. S. H. Ram for attending to these arrangements.

Tennis.—Tennis is very popular and members are utilising the courts regularly. The Club has won the Hongkong Tennis League, Senior Division, for the second time in succession without a defeat. The Club's "B" team, the University, and the C. R. C. "B" team again tied for first place after an unsuccessful attempt to determine the winner by a triangular tournament. These finalists will have to play one another again in the near future.

At Home.—Our second "At Home" was held on 6th August 1923 after one postponement due to the inclement weather. The Commodore and Mrs. Grace honoured us with their presence and Mrs. Grace very kindly distributed the Shields and prizes won by us during the year.

Tennis Tournaments.—As in former years Tennis Tournaments were successfully run by the Club. The following are the results:—

Singles Championship. (Cup to be won 3 years in succession or 5 times in all, presented by Mr. M. A. Razack).

Winner.—Mr. S. A. Rumjahn, after defeating Mr. A. H. Rumjahn in the Challenge Round. Prize presented by Mr. A. H. Hamet.

Runner-up.—Mr. O. Rumjahn. Prize presented by Mr. H. M. H. Nemesee.

Handicap Singles. Winner.—Mr. A. L. Rumjahn. Prize presented by Mr. H. M. H. Nemesee.

Handicap Doubles. Winner.—Mrs. S. A. Rumjahn and S. O. Bux. Prize presented by Mr. J. H. N. Mody.

Runners-up.—Mrs. S. A. Rumjahn and G. Mohamed. Prize presented by Mr. P. A. Jamnani.

Cricket.—The Club was represented in the 1st and 2nd Divisions of the Hongkong Cricket League. The 2nd Division were winners in the Junior League, having played 10 matches, won 8, and drew 2. The 1st Division played 8 matches, won 3, lost 1, and drew 4, and tied for third position in the League.

The following members were awarded prizes for their good work in connection with the League cricket:—

1st XI Best Average in Batting. Prize presented by the Committee. Won by Mr. S. H. Ismail.

1st XI Runner-up in Batting. Prize presented by Mr. E. Arculli. Won by Mr. A. H. Madar.

2nd XI Best Average in Batting. Prize presented by Mr. H. D. Rumjahn. Won by Mr. H. D. Rumjahn.

THEATRE ROYAL.

ANOTHER BIG SUCCESS.

There was a crowded audience at the Theatre Royal on Saturday night, when the Forbes Russell Comedy Company gave a fine performance of "Peg O' My Heart." Miss Niqua Lewis was in the title role, and she made a great success of the part of the impulsive Irish girl. The other members of the cast also gave her splendid support, and a word must be specially mentioned of Mr. Guy Buckley as Alaric which was a part that suited him excellently.

To-night the Company will give "The Dippers."

THE STAR.

"WHEN THE CLOUDS ROLL BY."

Patrons of the Star will have the opportunity of seeing Douglas Fairbanks in his lighter vein, as distinct from the big productions he has made recently, when "When the Clouds Roll By" is presented in Kowloon.

The story of this picture is an unusually amusing one, and Douglas's antics are especially surprising. The film is an excellent relief to such productions as "Robin Hood," and shows how versatile the popular star can be. It should prove a first-class attraction at the Star.

FORTUNE OF £17,000,000

Two Years' Search For M.P.'s Descendants.

The story of a romantic search for the heir to a fortune of £17,000,000, which reads like a chapter of a novel, by Willie Collins, has just been disclosed at Preston.

Seventy claimants have come forward for a share in the fortune of Nicholas Fazackerley—M.P. for Preston 1723-1787—which is now estimated to amount to the vast sum stated.

A meeting of these claimants will be held at Preston on Saturday, when steps to be taken to secure the millions will be discussed.

The estate is said to include part of Boodle and Fazackerley, in Liverpool district, as well as valuable sites in London.

Each of the 70 claimants anticipates receiving a quarter million if the claim succeeds.

Nicholas Fazackerley, it is stated, left no direct heir, and the claimants say that under his will the assets should have gone to his relatives, of whom they are descendants.

The claimants are widely scattered, including 16 in Gorton, an accountant in Manchester, and people in Preston, Liverpool, Lancashire, America, New South Wales, and New Zealand.

"CO-OPTIMISTS!"

A committee of seven has been appointed to undertake the work of investigation.

Claimants have contributed £5, a week towards the cost of Chancery proceedings.

Some of the descendants declare that it is only wasting money to pursue the matter, but the majority are convinced that they will be able to establish their title to a share in the estate.

Mr. Frank Whitehead, general manager for the claimants, states that research has shown that Nicholas Fazackerley had only one brother who had issue, and his next of kin under terms of the will had been traced down to one descendant.

Through want of capital, however, the latter had agreed that those who contributed towards the expenses should share equally in the estate if the claim should be established. A legal document to this effect has been drawn up.

Considerable parts of the estates have been sold by the trustees, but the money received for the sales has been deposited in banks, and efforts are being made to trace where the money lies.

CHEERY, BUT EMBARRASSING.

A girl asked the Willesden magistrate for a summons against a young man next door, who shouted "Hurrah" every time she went out of the house. The Clerk: That is in honour of you. The Girl: I spoke to him about it, and he says he is going to bring six other young men to shout "Hurrah." The Magistrate: That will be quite a joy day. Keep on smiling, as you are doing now, and it won't do you any harm.

THE HO HONG BANK

OPENING OF HONGKONG
BRANCH.

There were a large number of local bankers, by their representatives, and many other prominent business men, representing both the Chinese and foreign communities, at the opening of the Hongkong branch of the Ho
Hong Bank, Limited, (Singapore), which is situated at No. 13,
Queen's Road Central, this morning.

The opening ceremony was performed by Mr. Tan Yee-poi of the Bank of China, with a short speech appropriate to the occasion.

The Hon. Dr. Lim Boon-keng, a director at the head office at
Singapore, explained that the Ho
Hong Bank was the fruit of the experience of Chinese merchants in the Straits. The Chinese had peculiar methods from "old customs" and it was found necessary to have banks suited to their needs. The bank had been founded with a view to adapting the "most approved methods" of modern banking, and was specially fitted to deal with Chinese connected with the trade in Malaya.
Dr. Lim Boon-keng spoke very highly of the founder of the bank,
Mr. Lim Peng-siang, J.P. of Singapore, stating that but for him the bank could not have been started.

Mr. Jose Aragon, of Manila,
also made a short speech.

A PUZZLE A DAY.

"A certain triangle," said the professor, "has one side 26 feet long, another side 23 feet, and the third side 60 feet. If a man walked around it sixteen times,
how many yards would he travel?
What did the bright scholar reply?"

Saturday's answer:

The large volume in the book
rack is WEBSTER'S DICTIO-NARY: the letters forming the title are found in the five words, "racy, west, bid, ton, rise."

WEATHER REPORT.

Sept. 30d. 11h. 45m. Warning
to Hongkong Coast Ports: (see)
Depression or typhoon of unknown intensity within 120 miles
of Lat. 22° N. Long. 124° E.
moving N.E.

Oct. 1d. 9h. 50m. Warning
to Hongkong Coast Ports: (see)
Depression or typhoon of unknown intensity within 60 miles
of Lat. 22° N. Long. 122° E.
direction unknown.

Oct. 1d. 11h. 55m. Pressure has increased slightly at Vladivostok, Hongkong and Aparri.
It has decreased moderately at Guam and Koshun, and slightly from Ch-fuo to Shanghai.

The anticyclone is moving eastward.
The reported fall of the barometer at Koshun suggests that the typhoon may be moving westward, but this requires confirmation. Its estimated position this morning was Lat. 22° N. and Long. 122° E.

A depression or typhoon is shown to the north of Guam.
Hongkong rainfall for the 24 hours ending at 10 a.m. to-day,
0.00 inch. Total since January 1st, 88.70 inches, against an average of 75.87 inches.
